XIV. BUSINESS

1. Commissioner Assignment of New Public Hearing Case

Commissioner Griess agreed to assist the Public Hearing Officer, William A. Tringe, Jr.

2. Committee Assignments

Commissioners discussed the formation of three committees. Strategic Planning, System/Personnel, and Legislative/Budget. The Commissioners determined which Commissioners would be on what committee as follows: Commissioners Drumheller and Nesbitt are on the Strategic Committee; Commissioners Carpenter, Yates, and Jefferies are on the System/Personnel Committee; and Commissioners Palmtag and Griess are on the Legislative/Budget Committee. Each unit director will be assigned to a committee.

3. Strategic Plan

Commissioners discussed the Strategic Plan. Commissioners Carpenter and Drumheller each provided suggestions on Strategic Planning.

4. EEOC Engagement Plan

Executive Director Odenthal informed the Commissioners the NEOC is working on reaching out to other civil rights organizations; looking to put short videos on its website, including at least one in Spanish; and also looking at several topics for webinars.

5. Budget Update

There has been a budget modification of an 8% decrease in funds. Executive Director Odenthal and the Commission's Chair Drumheller met with Legislators to discuss the matter.

6. November Meeting Location Change

Commissioner Drumheller moved to hold the November Commission meeting in Lincoln. Drumheller informed the Commission citizens from Georgia, the country, not the state, will be visiting Lincoln, Nebraska in November to observe how American government works. All the Commissioners present agreed to move the November Commission meeting to Lincoln.

7. Director's Update

Executive Director Odenthal informed the Commissioners the initial interviews will be conducted Monday, September 19th, for the open investigator position to be filled in the Lincoln office. Director Odenthal is looking into getting an Intern next spring. It was decided the Intake Investigators will add another appointment slot on the intake calendar splitting the times they are
